

HEALTH & SAFETY POLICY

Company is committed to undertake all possible steps to ensure the health, safety and welfare of all employees and other personnel engaged in work for the organization.

It is the duty of every employee to comply with the company safety policy and to work in co-operation with the management and to ensure that the work place remains as safe as possible.

Company is fully committed to appropriately maintain a safe system of work and fully recognizes its overall responsibility for upholding the safety at work place.

Company is committed to improve the OHS system on a perpetual basis

Managing Director

2023.01.10

Date